

‘A Night Full of Stars’ Today at 4:00pm

It’s a star-studded opening night for the newest entertainment innovation, “moving pictures”, portraying Bethlehem's very own superhero, King David. But the buzz on the red carpet can’t compare with the dazzling angel display out on the hillside announcing the birth of the promised Messiah, Christ the Lord—right there, in the City of David! The audience had gathered, the actors are in place, but the story just changed. Instead of the triumphs of Bethlehem’s own famous shepherd-king and giant killer put on display, a new and better show is suddenly taking center-stage and we can’t help but gather round to worship the new “most famous” person ever born in Bethlehem”, the Saviour of the world. Jesus!

Following tonight’s performance,
there will be a Shine Reception in Fellowship Hall.
